Comments:	This form is intended to be used in both chapter 48 and 938 proceedings. Both chapters 48 and 938 contain several scattered references to requirements of the court to inform either juveniles, parents, or both, of various rights, obligations, or possibilities. This recitation has generally taken a significant amount of time at the beginning of juvenile proceedings. This form is intended to be handed out to the child/juvenile or parents present at an intake conference, custody hearing, or mailed to absent parents as soon as the custody hearing is completed. The form covers: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the types of proceedings involved;• the purpose of a custody hearing in comparison to other hearings;• the rights of the child/juvenile/parents;

- the possibility of restitution or forfeiture orders becoming a judgment;
- the possibility of disclosure of identity and police records;
- the potential liability for damages or personal injury from wilful, malicious, or wanton acts, and that the amounts of such liability are based of which statutes are involved.

If the court or intake worker desires to add to the form the specific allegations, the white space to the right of the first bulleted paragraphs could be used for that purpose.
